

Financial Director

Last updated 4/23/2015

The Financial Director is responsible for promoting fiscal responsibility in the Guild. This includes monitoring Guild finances, identifying income improvement opportunities, and researching cost saving measures. They are the board representative on the Financial Audit Committee. They seek fundraising opportunities and solicit non-member donations.