This morning Harry Seurkamp informed us of the sad news about Johnny Stevens passing away at 4 AM Father's Day morning. Johnny has been suffering from COPD the last year. He died in the hospital. He will be cremated, and a memorial service will be decided on later.

Johnny was everyone's friend. He was a member of the Ft. Worth Woodcarvers and a longtime member of the Texas Woodcarvers Guild. He taught stylized wood carving classes at many of our past Round Up meetings. There were lots of sea animals: otters, dolphins, seals, etc. that he had cut out in butternut wood blanks for his students. He was a great instructor, and in his day, he won many awards.

He was a carving pal of Charlie Maxwell. Charlie Maxwell is a key founder of the Texas Woodcarvers Guild and the Guild's Highest achievement is the C-Max award in his honor. Johnny will be missed by all.
